On Friday, March 22, 2024, Columbia State Community College will host "High School Competition Day." A sociology competition is included in the event, and we hope that you and your school's sociology faculty will encourage student participation.

Any student in grades 9-12 is eligible. The deadline for registration is March 8, 2024. Prizes will be awarded for first, second and third places. There will be no competition unless at least seven students compete.

The sociology test will include 100 multiple choice questions and a short essay which will be graded in the event of a tie. The test will cover topics in sociology typically surveyed in introductory sociology classes, such as primary sociological theories, sociological research methods, and concepts related to culture, gender, race & ethnicity, crime, economy and poverty, religion, politics, etc.

Please complete the online registration form for interested students.   We look forward to welcoming your students and teachers to our campus on Friday, March 22, 2024.
