

The Instructional Design Team is made up of five members of Columbia State faculty who are experienced in web course development and pedagogy.

The Director of Instructional Support & Evening Services monitors the work of the Instructional Design Team.

Responsibilities of an Instructional Design Team Member

Member Term	One Academic Year
Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Proficient in using Online Campus to create courses.• Assist faculty in the design and development of Internet and Hybrid courses.• The Instructional Design Team member will remain involved throughout the course development project to continue providing guidance.• Evaluate completed courses.• Submit final the quality assurance document to the instructor and Director of Instructional Support & Evening Services.• Provide or assist with workshops on Internet course design.• Attend specialized training when provided.• Attend scheduled meetings.