3. Other Fall projects

- a. Change for Children-Angel Tree
 - i. Mandy Carter-Lowe will head up project. Amber will bring additional 'buckets.'
 - ii. We will need members to take buckets to classes, make announcements and pass them around to collect spare change. Money will be used to purchase items for the Angel Tree.
 - iii. Will and Frank will let us know if SGA plans to put up an Angel Tree in JSC again this year
 - iv. May look into setting buckets up by register in cafeteria or in the Info Center
- b. Food Drive –
 - i. food items will be donated to The Family Center with some set aside for Frank to take to Helping Hands
 - ii. We have three boxes that can be used in Warf, Clement and JSC. We'll need 1 more decorated box for the Hickman building
 - iii. Kyle Long will try to bring boxes when we gather items for Family Center to pick up
- c. Honors Seminars-
 - i. We will try to plan 1 or two to be shown on the Columbia campus this semester
 - ii. We also hope to send them to other campuses to be shown there
 - iii. Members should make attempts to attend and to promote them in their classes
- 4. Scholarship from Athens State
 - a. Will be placed in account and used to assist a potential member in a future semester
- 5. Communication
 - a. Frank will write up a proposal to bring back something similar to the Daily Throne as a way to communicate more effectively with students. The Daily Throne was a calendar of campus happenings, updated monthly and placed in stalls and above urinals in the bathroom. Suggestions included having permanent plastic holders into which the single piece of paper could be slipped, removing the problem of tape removing paint or people writing on the papers. Proposal will be sent to Student Services
- 6. All USA scholarship –Application Due Nov. 19th
 - a. If you plan to transfer in Spring or Summer 2011, this scholarship can be very useful.
 - b. Columbia State nominated two applicants who are automatically on the All-TN team
 - c. Information on applying was sent in an earlier email from Lacey Bennis
 - d. The application is lengthy so begin now! Must be completed by Nov. 19th
