PRESENTS

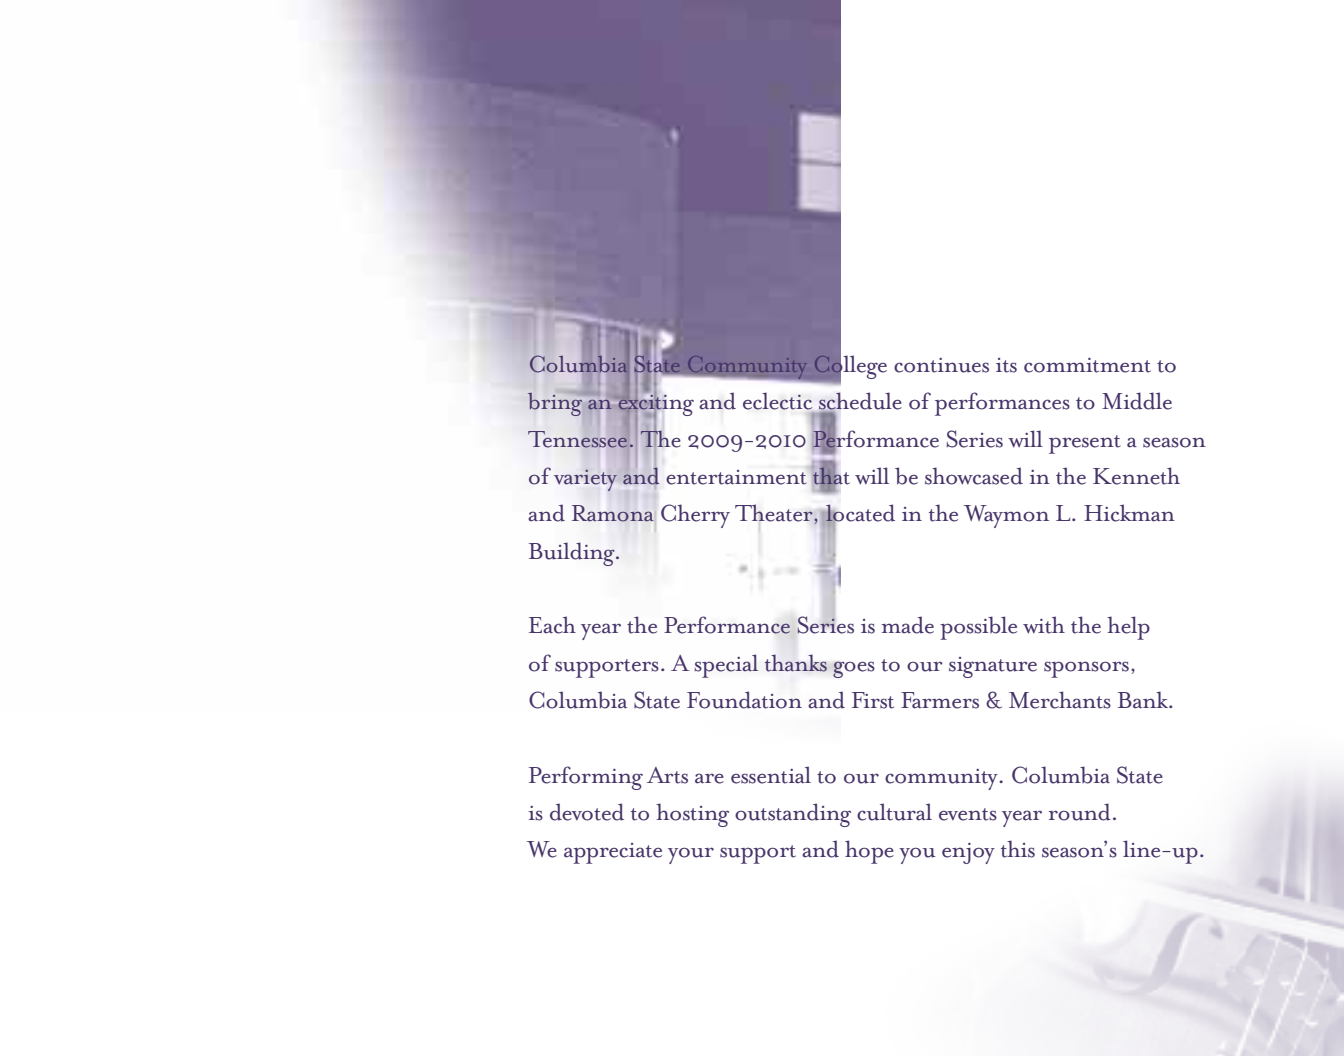

The 2009-2010

FIRST FARMERS &
MERCHANTS BANK

Performance Series

The image features a light purple and white background with a faint, artistic depiction of a violin and a guitar. The violin is positioned in the upper right, and the guitar is in the lower left. The word "Welcome" is written in a dark blue, elegant cursive font, centered in the middle of the image. There is also a faint, larger version of the word "Welcome" in the background, creating a layered effect.

Welcome

Columbia State Community College continues its commitment to bring an exciting and eclectic schedule of performances to Middle Tennessee. The 2009-2010 Performance Series will present a season of variety and entertainment that will be showcased in the Kenneth and Ramona Cherry Theater, located in the Waymon L. Hickman Building.

Each year the Performance Series is made possible with the help of supporters. A special thanks goes to our signature sponsors, Columbia State Foundation and First Farmers & Merchants Bank.

Performing Arts are essential to our community. Columbia State is devoted to hosting outstanding cultural events year round. We appreciate your support and hope you enjoy this season's line-up.

The 2009-2010 Performers

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 2009 AT 7 P.M.

Legends of Motown

Starring HORIZON

Straight out of Detroit comes HORIZON - authentic, energetic, harmonic, and well choreographed. HORIZON brings Motown back with class and poise. Dressed in classic Motown style, Rick Ingram, Prentiss Jones, and Earl Vinson soon have the audience eating out of their hands, fingers snapping, moving, remembering and wanting more.

HORIZON has shared the stage with legendary artists such as The Temptations and The Four Tops. The group has opened for The Monkees' former lead singer, Davy Jones, and world-class rock bands including Randy Meisner of The Eagles, Denny Laine of Wings and The Moody Blues, and Ron Wikso of Foreigner.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 29, 2009 AT 7 P.M.

Showtime at First Baptist The Women of Ivy Gap Return

Cumberland County Playhouse's hot ticket of the year features the women of Ivy Gap returning with the Tennessee premiere of Showtime at First Baptist, the sequel to First Baptist of Ivy Gap.

After the 100th birthday of Ivy Gap, May Ellen, Vera and Olene plan a benefit talent show to help the Pastor meet a crisis. But the mayor's wife thinks she's a Baptist "Deputy Sheriff" (with a siren on her red Cadillac!). She likes men in charge of everything and fights the talent show. But through laughter, tragedy, and showbiz, the church - and the women - survive stronger than ever.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 8, 2009 AT 7 P.M.

Christmas Pops

For more than 20 years, local artist Paul Plant has partnered with the Lawrence County Oratorio Society to present Christmas Pops to local audiences. Now, Columbia State has the honor of welcoming them to our very own Cherry Theater. This exciting and festive show is enjoyable for all ages. It will feature more than 70 performers, along with the Bradley Brass Band. This is one Christmas show you won't want to miss!

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 2010 AT 7 P.M.

Toe Roaster

Toe Roaster, a true campfire adventure, provides a new and fresh entertainment experience unlike any other. It has been described as a ride through life, delivered with humor, yet touching each member of the audience in a personal and very real way.

Humor and ability to provoke thought make Toe Roaster perfect for all audiences.

THURSDAY, MARCH 18, 2010 AT 7 P.M.

I Musici de Montréal

I Musici de Montréal, a chamber orchestra of 15 musicians, founded by cellist and dynamic Maestro conductor Yuli Turovsky, will take the Cherry Theater stage for the first time. I Musici presents a vast repertoire extending from the baroque to the contemporary.

The public enthusiasm and critical acclaim that underlines the precision, cohesion and virtuosity of performance, as well as the distinctive sound of the orchestra, confirms I Musici's importance on the world's musical stage. The Orchestra has performed in some of the greatest halls in the world: New York's Lincoln Center, the Gewandhaus in Leipzig, Germany, the Palais des Beaux-Arts in Brussel, Kioi Hall in Tokyo and the Conservatoire de Musique in Luxemburg.

SATURDAY, APRIL 24, 2010 AT 7 P.M.

Columbia State Spring Musical

The Columbia State Commercial Entertainment Program's spring extravaganza is always one of the most anticipated performances in the series each year. Past performances include Grease, Nunsense and Thoroughly Modern Millie.

Columbia State's Commercial Entertainment Program is one of only two programs in the country to specifically train talented students for careers as singers, dancers and actors. Graduates of the program have gone on to successful careers with nationally known theme parks, dance studios and other entertainment groups.
