The Planning Council came to order and began a review of the Strategic Planning Manual. A draft mission statement had been submitted by the Mission Statement Committee and distributed to the Planning Council for comment. After discussion, the following draft statement was approved.

Columbia State Community College enhances the lives of the citizens and the communities of southern middle Tennessee through teaching, learning, and student success.

The Mission Statement Committee will expand the committee to include the constituency leaders and begin work on a vision statement, values statement, and role and scope statement.

Wording revisions were made to the sections on terminology, guiding principles and planning assumptions. These changes were approved and will be added to the manual.

The next meeting of the Planning Council will be on Wednesday, March 24, 2010 in the Napier Room.
