PURPOSE: To establish the college's position in regard to the use of copyrighted materials by individual employees.

POLICY

- I. The College recognizes and respects the exclusive copyright of artists, designers, composers, photographers, and all others who originate artistic or intellectual materials.
- II. In doing so, the College adheres to the provisions of the United States Copyright Act of 1976 (Title 17, United States Code 101, et. seq.) and any subsequent revisions, including the Digital Millennium Copyright Act, the TEACH Act (H.R. 2215, November 2, 2002), and the Tennessee Board of Regents policy and guidelines as currently set forth in TBR Policy 5:01:06:00, "Intellectual Property" and TBR Guideline A-075, "Distance Education and Intellectual Property." These policies are incorporated into this policy by reference herein, and may be accessed through their web sites:
