Student Support Services (SSS) is a great way to begin your Columbia State experience. As a TRiO SSS participant you will:

- Meet with your assigned TRiO Success Coach to map out a plan for academic success towards graduation.
- Learn and develop valuable study skills that will be useful throughout college.
- Get help with transferring to a four-year institution, registration, financial aid, etc.
- Participate in campus tours and cultural events that will enhance your college experience.
- Connect with a great group of peers that are already part of our program.

STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

What is TRiO Student Support Services?

The TRiO Student Support Services (SSS) is a federally-funded program designed to assist students as they go through their college journey. Students learn valuable college success skills and learn to navigate higher education.

Program Eligibility

TRiO Student Support Services (SSS) participants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Students must be fully admitted and plan to enroll in the Fall 2023 semester. Participants must demonstrate academic need for services and meet at least one of the following criteria:

First-Generation: Neither parent has received a bachelor's degree.

Low-Income: Family income must meet federal income eligibility guidelines as verified by Columbia State TRiO.

Disability: Documented disability as defined in the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and verified by Columbia State's Disability Resource Center.

Students must also demonstrate commitment to participate in the TRiO program activities as detailed in the Individual Success Plan.

TRiO Students Are Expected To:

- Successfully complete Fall 2023 courses at Columbia State.
- Fully participate in the academic year component of TRiO SSS.
- Adhere to the Columbia State and TRiO SSS code of conduct.
